

THINGS YOU SHOULD TRY TO EAT WHILE IN MONTREAL

- Poutine (French fries, gravy, cheese): La Banquise, 994 rue Rachel Est
- Smoke meat sandwich: Schwartz, 3895 Boul. Saint Laurent
- Queue de castor (Beaver Tails): Old Montreal or at La Ronde

PLACES TO VISIT / ACTIVITIES

- Atwater Market
- Bell Center (for special events ranging from Hockey games to concerts)
- Biodome de Montreal
- Biosphere
- Botanical Garden
- Casino de Montreal (Montreal Casino)
- Cathedral of Marie-Reine-du-Monde
- Chinatown
- Christ Church Cathedral
- Crescent Street (nightlife / bars)
- Eating « poutine » at Banquise
- Eaton Center
- Gilles Villeneuve F1 race circuit
- Grévin Museum
- Hiking up Mount-Royal
- Ice skating at the Bell Amphitheatre
- IMAX theatre old port
- Insectarium
- Jazz Festival
- Jean Talon Market
- La Ronde (amusement park)
- Laser Quest
- Les Grands Ballets Canadiens
- Little Italy district
- McGill University
- Montreal Holocaust Memorial Museum
- Montreal International Jazz Festival
- Montreal Symphony Orchestra
- Mount Royal Park
- Musée des beaux-arts de Montréal
- Notre-Dame Basilica
- Notre-Dame-de Bon-Secours Chapel
- Old Montreal (especially “Rue St-Paul Street”)
- Old port of Montreal
- Olympic Park (from the summer 1976 olympics)
- Parc Jean-Drapeau
- Place Jacques-Cartier and Marché Bonsecours Market
- Planetarium (visiting)
- Plateau Mont-Royal (a district of Montreal)
- Plateau Mont-Royal (visiting)
- Pointe-à-Callière Museum in old Montreal (archaeology and history complex)
- RÉSO: The réseau de la ville souterraine (the network of the underground city with 32 kilometers across 63 connected buildings with 190 points of entry; great for underground shopping and access to more than 2 000 stores, 200 restaurants, 1 200 offices, and other organizations)
- Saputo Stadium (MLS soccer games)
- Science Center
- St-Catherine Street (downtown)
- St-Joseph’s Oratory